Wee: BN top leaders to decide seat changes

JOHOR BARU: Any change to seat allocations for Barisan Nasional component parties must be decided by its top leadership, MCA deputy president Datuk Seri Dr Wee Ka Siong said.

He said the matter should only be decided after discussions between presidents of component parties and Barisan's top leadership.

"The respective party presidents and Barisan chairman Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak will have the final say on any change to be made to the existing seat allocations," he said after attending the Pasir Gudang MCA division meeting here yesterday.

Dr Wee, who is also the Johor MCA chairman, was commenting on reports quoting Pontian Umno division chief Datuk Hasni Mohammad as saying Umno would consider taking back the Pulai Sebatang state seat in the next general election.

The Pulai Sebatang state seat has been contested by MCA since 2004 and its assemblyman is Datuk Tee Siew Kiong, who is also the Johor MCA deputy chairman.

Dr Wee said while discussions on such matters at the grassroots level were inevitable, the ultimate decision would come from the top leadership with Barisan's best interest in mind.

The party's steering committee chairman for GE14 added that MCA would continue to focus on groundwork to win back the Johor Jaya state seat, which was won by DAP in the last general election.

"The Pasir Gudang division chief Tan Cher Puk will continue leading local members to secure a win," he said, urging members not to speculate on candidates standing in GE14.

Speaking to reporters after launching the Belt and Road International Academy Forum later, Dr Wee said leaders of political parties from both divides should maintain a certain maturity when representing Malaysia on international platforms.

Dr Wee, who is also Minister in the Prime Minister's Department, said foreign investors were not interested in the country's politics but its stability.

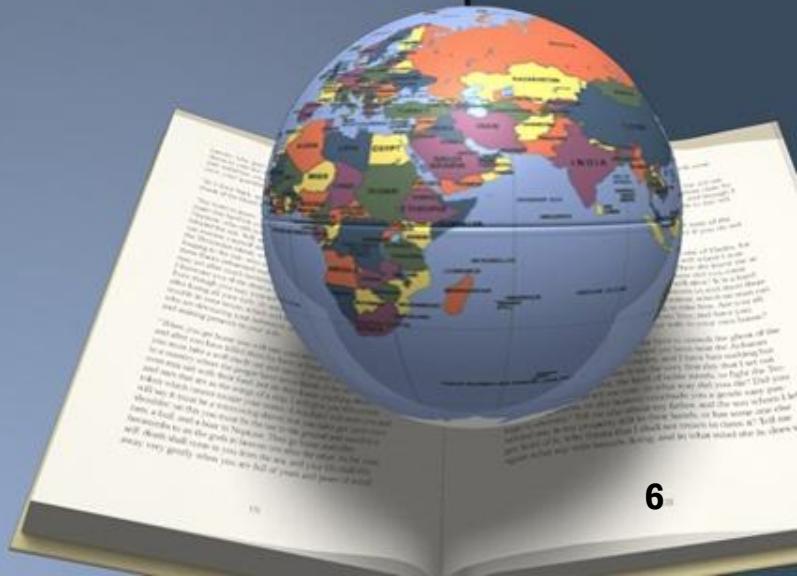

"In order to stay competitive and attract foreign investors, we have to prove to them that we have this stability."

"But if every day there are adverse reports here and there, do you think they will have confidence in Malaysia?"

"We seldom see representatives of foreign opposition parties badmouthing their government during international meets," he added.

Dr Wee also encouraged local businesses to take advantage of Malaysia's diversity and act as China's strategic partner in paving the way for the republic to enter the Asean market in line with its Belt and Road initiative.

"Besides our strategic location and already being China's biggest trading partner, we are a multicultural society, which naturally makes us most strategic for China to enter the Asean market via Malaysia," he said.

Centre helps people with disabilities in Kota Masai

PASIR GUDANG: The Community-Based Rehabilitation (PDK) centre in Kota Masai has been playing a key role in helping disabled people become more independent.

The centre was set up by the Johor Elected Representatives Wives Association (Juita) under its Penyayang project, said Juita president Datin Rosni Omar.

The centre, which has been in operation since May last year, has helped trainees become more confident, said Rosni.

"The Kota Masai PDK has become the 72nd centre to be set up in the state.

"Most of the trainees have Down syndrome, cerebral palsy or have other disabilities such as slow learners," she said, adding previously the disabled had to go to the Ulu Tiram PDK, located some 10km away.

"Having a centre here will reduce the burden of the trainees' parents and guardians as they do not have to spend so much time and money travelling," she said in her speech at the launch of the centre.

Rosni, who is the wife of Johor Menteri Besar Datuk Mohamed Khaled Nordin, said RM628,900 was spent to build the centre.

She added the PDK centre was one of Juita's efforts to help the less fortunate.

"This project is under the Juitaku Sayang 1 initiative.

"PDK centres were introduced in 1995 with the objective of helping the disabled people lead independent lives," she said.
